

Wells Men's Breakfast

Please complete this form:

- If you wish to join us.
- You are a returning breakfaster.
- You need to update your contact details.

Invitations to book are sent out by email about a week before the meeting takes place. The invitation gives a brief description of the nature of the talk, the name of the speaker, and how to book. These details are also included in the programme.

Please be assured that any information you give us is for our use only and, in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulations, will not be shared with any third party. All emails sent to you are blind copies - i.e. your address is not visible to others.

We are an informal organisation and have no official joining or leaving procedures. The information we ask for is given entirely at your discretion and is requested purely for your convenience.

We would prefer you to include an emergency name and contact number, but this is entirely up to you. It is essential that the contact has given consent.
